

MBM Trainers

A-Z of What Great Looks Like

Agenda

Shown and covered

Books

For recommendations relevant to content

Capture

Give time during and after sessions to capture keepers and mind maps

Distraction

Tool covered at start

Evaluations

Level 1 (& Level 4) and Attendance List completed and sent to pa@mbm

Frameworks

By relevant competency available, covered for WGLL

Great Stories

And a minimum of x3 mnemonics used during the day

Habit/Learning

Pocket cards available

ILO

Templates available and used mid to late morning

Jog Memory

L2L refresh at start of each course (capture, LS, curve, habits, goal setting, knowledge vault).

Knowledge Vault, Learners, Sticky Pieces etc

Use MBM language and terminology

Learning Buddy's

Set up at start, used during day and set up post sessions 10, 30 & 60 days

Music

Play Baroque music playing at start and during deep learning sessions

Notes

Learning Provider bio notes available

Objectives

Know the course LO's and Learners ILO's

Posters

From L2L up (and roll up banners – when available).

Quiz

Templates used at end of day and 10 questions linked to LO's

Retention

Blank A4 paper and Keepers available

Sticky Pieces

Give a heads up on SP's and evaluations coming post course

Toys and Testimonials

Sticky Bricks, balls etc. Also have referral cards available and ask for a testimonial

Use HBDI

And Learning Styles to appeal to all quadrants

Visuals, sound and smell

Appeal to all senses

Water and Popcorn

Available

Espresso sessions

For max 10 minutes, max 40 minute normal sessions and bookend in-between

Yawn [avoid]

Every session to have a practical's and discussions – limit chalk and talk

Zoom

In on great content, minimal handouts, use slides with pictures, videos and sound.